

-  County Boundary
-  Drainage Basin Boundary
-  WRIA Boundary
-  Lakes/Major Waterways
-  Incorporated Area

 Salmonid Present - Duwamish River
 Salmonid known to be present due to first-hand observations, or from electro-fishing, spawner surveys, field reports, and other direct sources of data. Salmonid distribution on other rivers is not included on this map.

 Adult Salmonid Present - Ocean
 Adult chinook, chum, coho, cutthroat, pink, sockeye, steelhead and native charr are known or expected to be present based upon knowledge of species life history. Juvenile chum, cutthroat, and steelhead may also be present.

 Juvenile Salmonid Present - Ocean
 Juvenile chinook, chum, coho, cutthroat, pink, sockeye, and steelhead are known or expected to be present based on knowledge of species life history. The band extends to the -30m contour, the limit of the nearshore zone.

Poster produced by:
 GIS and Visual Communications Unit, WLR
 King County Department of Natural Resources

File Name:
 0010 SON Salmon Use.al LP

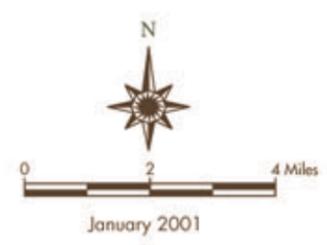

Figure 18

Salmonid Use of the Nearshore Environment

State of the Nearshore Report