Performance, Strategy and Budget

- PSB will lead the development of the 2017/2018 biennial budget. Overall, the County's finances are in strong shape, but there are serious challenges in a few areas. For unincorporated area residents, the most significant issues are a projected gap in the General Fund of about $50 million (out of a base of $1.5 billion). This may lead to significant reductions in some services. In addition, funding for Roads continues to be far less than needed simply to maintain current infrastructure. No further cuts to Roads services are likely for 2017/2018 but backlogs will grow even more.

Service Guidelines Task Force

- In 2010, King County formed a Regional Transit Task Force which recommended that Metro create objective, data-based guidelines for planning and managing transit service. Metro responded to this recommendation, and the King County Council adopted the King County Metro Strategic Plan for Public Transportation and Service Guidelines in July 2011.
- After Metro had used these guidelines for several years in transit planning, the King County Executive and Council formed a new task force to further analyze how transit service is evaluated and allocated. The Service Guidelines Task Force worked from March through early October 2015, developing principles and recommendations for modifying the guidelines. More information can be found on Metro Online at <http://metro.kingcounty.gov/advisory-groups/service-guidelines-task-force/>
- On January 28, 2016, Metro reconvened the Task Force to share how the recommendations have been translated into policy proposals for the Regional Transit Committee and the King County Council.

Chris O'Claire 206.477.5801 • christina.oclaire@kingcounty.gov

Metro Long Range Plan

- King County Metro is working with stakeholders, riders and the public to develop a long range plan that will guide how the transit system grows and changes over the next 25 year. The Plan will present a shared vision for a future public transportation system that gets people where they want to go and helps our region thrive. It will describe an integrated network of transportation options, the facilities and technology needed to support those services, and the financial requirements for building the system. It is being developed in close coordination with Sound Transit and other transportation agencies.
- King County Metro will present a Draft Long Range Plan in 2016 for stakeholder and public feedback to help shape the final plan that will be transmitted to King County Council. More information is available online at kcmetrovision.org.

Chinook Bend Restoration Project

The initial phase of this levee removal project began in 2009. In the summer of 2015, we removed a culvert and fish ladder that is no longer needed to access the site. We also removed additional rock from the project site which was exposed as a result of high water events since the project was implemented. This additional rock removal will help ensure that project goals are achieved.

Snoqualmie at Fall City Corridor Restoration

This project continues detailed reach-scale flood and habitat restoration planning in the Snoqualmie River reach near Fall City. Planning identified four sites where existing King County levees could be removed and new set-back facilities constructed to improve salmon habitat, reduce flood hazards and promote agriculture throughout this reach. The Upper Carlson project listed above is the first project to be implemented in the reach. Three additional large flood facilities may be relocated (set back) in this reach over the next two decades, restoring river access to isolated floodplain areas. Outreach efforts will continue with the agricultural community, landowners, and community members to further prioritize and identify risks and benefits of large-scale restoration projects in this corridor.

Project 1 – Upper Carlson construction was completed in 2014. The second project is scheduled for 2018.

- The Civil Division is the County's law firm. It serves as legal counsel to the Metropolitan King County Council, the County Executive and all Executive agencies, the Superior and District Courts, the County Assessor, independent boards and commissions, and some school districts. The division litigates cases on behalf and in defense of its clients, provides legal advice and assistance on all sorts of questions and projects, and issues formal written legal opinions from time to time.
- The Family Support Division is an integral part of the federal and state child support system. The deputies establish paternity for children born out of wedlock, ensure support obligations are enforced, and modify support amounts when necessary.

Emerging Programs and Policy Overview

- 180 Diversion Program –diverts over 350 King County youth per year since 2011. In collaboration with community leaders, the PAO host motivational workshops for youth arrested for committing a misdemeanor violation. The purpose of the workshop is to help the youth identify their strengths, weaknesses, and provide tools to assist in making better decisions.
- Truancy Dropout Prevention Program—over 1200 petitions against truant youth are filed in juvenile court. In an attempt to reengage the youth and their family, the KCPAO hosts reengagement workshops to help identify what is preventing school attendance and with the help of the youth, their parent or guardian, and the school representative, an individualized education reengagement plan is developed.

- LEAD (Law Enforcement Assisted Diversion)—is a law enforcement diversion program that allows police officers to divert those engaged in a minor criminal act into services intended to address a drug addiction, mental health concern, homelessness, or some other root cause that informed their decision to engage in criminal conduct.
- Decriminalized DWLS 3 Cases—in August of 2014, the KCPAO modified its policy on the prosecution of DWLS 3 cases and the Office no longer pursues DWLS 3 cases. In addition, upon the decision to decriminalize these cases by making them a traffic infraction, we recalled all outstanding warrants related to a DWLS 3 matter.
- FIRS (Family Intervention Reconciliation Services) are a youth diversion program that will divert youth who have been arrested due to a domestic violence interaction with a parent or sibling. In looking at juvenile data, DV cases make up 17% of the juvenile unit caseload and of that 17%, 30% involve youth of color. Instead of prosecuting these cases, FIRS is a crisis intervention strategy. The PAO is in the process of modifying policy and practice to divert these cases to a crisis intervention program that will address the needs of the youth and their family.
- CJP (Community Justice Project) is a civil remedy project in which the PAO uses its municipal authority in under-served marginalized communities in unincorporated King County (White Center and Skyway) to address blighted properties that have become crime magnets. In partnership with the Department of Permitting and Environmental Services, the King County Sheriff's Office, and other King County agencies, the goal of the PAO is to prioritize safety issues identified by the community to increase public safety in under-served communities using civil remedies as an enforcement tool instead of the traditional criminal prosecution.

Community Engagement

- The PAO routinely participates in public speaking events in which a discussion about criminal justice reform and the impact on communities with a focus on those communities most impacted by crime. The community engagement strategy includes presentations to the community discussing the emerging trends impacting the criminal justice system and PAO criminal justice reform strategies. Emerging trends that the PAO covers in community presentations include:

- Exclusionary School Discipline Practices
- Recidivism
- Racial and Ethnic Disproportionality
- Mental Health Reform
- Sentence Reform
- Drug Reform
- Prison Reform
- More Education/Vocational Opportunities
- More Mental Health Services
- Creation of a Sustainable Reentry System
- Remove unnecessary barriers to reentry

King County Sheriff's Office

- The King County Sheriff's Office consists of over 1,000 commissioned and professional staff employees who provide services to unincorporated King County. These services include reactive 9-1-1 patrol, search & rescue, undercover drug and gang enforcement, property crime investigations, homicide, assault, robbery and sexual assault investigations, as well as a variety of other services including concealed weapons licensing, fingerprinting, etc.
