Replacement envelope instructions

Get ready
You will need:
- Your ballot
- Black ink pen
- Clear tape
- Envelope

Your replacement envelope packet will include:
- Declaration and signature sheet
- Optional cover sheet
- Envelope cut-out sheet

Step-by-Step Instructions

1. Print your replacement envelope packet
   - Print all pages.

2. Complete your declaration and signature sheet
   - For your ballot to count you must sign, date, and return the declaration and signature sheet to King County Elections with your ballot packet materials.

3. Prepare your ballot packet
   - Arrange your completed ballot packet in the order shown:
     1. Your signed Declaration and Signature Sheet
     2. Optional Cover Sheet (optional, not required)
     3. Your ballot

4. Choose one of the options to submit your ballot packet

   Option 1: Mail only option
   1. Locate and follow the instructions on the envelope cut-out sheet.
   2. Return the completed envelope. If you mail the envelope, the original voted ballot and signed declaration must be postmarked by Election Day and requires a first class stamp for mailing. You can also return your ballot without postage at a ballot drop location by 8 p.m. (PT) on Election Day. Visit www.kingcounty.gov/elections for ballot drop box locations.

   Option 2: Email/fax and Mail option
   - If you are unable to get an Election Day postmark, you can email or fax your ballot packet no later than 8 p.m. (PT) on Election Day. Returning your ballot packet materials electronically only ensures that your ballot packet materials are received prior to the 8 p.m. (PT) deadline on Election Day, you must still return your original printed ballot packet.

   To email your ballot:
   1. Scan or image your ballot packet in the order described in step 3 above. If you do not have a scanner, you can take a picture of your ballot with a digital camera or smart phone. We recommend you save your ballot packet as a .pdf, .jpeg, .jpg, .doc, or .docx file. Please review your scanned or imaged pages to make sure they are legible before emailing them.
   2. Email your ballot packet to King County Elections at return.ballot@kingcounty.gov. You must send your ballot packet as an attachment, we are unable to accept links for websites to access your ballot packet. Please note that King County Elections has a size limit on incoming mail attachments of 10 MB.
   3. Mail your original ballot packet as instructed on the envelope cut-out sheet.

   To fax your ballot:
   1. Fax your ballot packet in the order described in step 3 above to King County Elections at 206-296-4499.
   2. Mail your original ballot packet as instructed on the envelope cut-out sheet.

⚠️ Your ballot will only be processed if the original printed ballot and signed declaration are received by mail or in-person no later than November 24, 2014, the day before election certification.
