RATTLESNAKE MOUNTAIN

Located just 30 miles east of Seattle near North Bend, the Rattlesnake Mountain Scenic Area is a mountainous ridge along Interstate 90 that offers some of the most scenic hiking in the Cascade foothills. The 10-mile-long hiking trail along the ridge is easily accessible from I-90, provides many opportunities for views of Mount Si, the upper Snoqualmie Valley and the Cascades, and reaches a high point elevation of 3,500 feet. At the south end, the 1,000-foot high ledges above Rattlesnake Lake reward hikers with a spectacular view of the Cedar River Watershed.
